

Fix, it's true
Keeps on rainin', baby
It's all crystalline
Your word in my head
Gonna watch from the balcony
Sing backwards and we

Fix, it's true
Keeps on raining, baby
There's no explainin', baby, yeah, yeah
Gonna drive that Terraplane
Across the frozen ocean
We've always been together as good

Love will be what's hidden
Every single fragment
I look and I fly
A flower born from you
I am joined with you
And adorned with you, yeah

Fix, it's true
Gonna keep raining, baby
Oh, yeah, yeah, yes
And it's you that I'm missing
Won't come up missing

Well, I'm torn from you
Want to be reborn with you
It's all crystalline, baby

Fix, it's true
Keeps on rainin', baby
Keeps on rainin', baby
Drive that Terraplane
Down into the ocean
We've always been together as good

Got no need for shelter
Everything's forgotten
All is forgiven and understood
A flower born from you, reborn in you
And adorned, baby, when I am joined with you

Fix, it's true
Keeps on rainin', baby
Keeps on rainin', baby
