Kimiko's Dream House

Mark Lanegan

It's a matter of time, we always get lost By going very far, it's a matter of time Like I told you before, things are alright If I fall to the floor, it's for closing my eyes I came to this place, so tired at first

Kimiko's dream house So many things, that girls know before Kimiko's dream house There's so many things, that I've known before

To make matters worse, the trains are on time Lost at the station, still lost in our minds Thrown the rivers, we kicked and cursed

Kimiko's dream house So many things, that girls know before Kimiko's dream house So many things, that I've know before

It's swallowing us but dream we must Kimiko's dream house So many things, that girls know before Kimiko's dream house So many things, that I've known before I and all the girls have known before
