Oh, It's good Baby, to make me forget Oh, so good Baby, so good to make me forget Forget myself again I walk down, the steps to the river With my outfit, full set to deliver And the minute it's done There's nothin' but time On a pay telephone, I send a message to mine Yeah, it's good So good baby Because it makes me forget Oh, so good So good baby Because it makes me forget Forget myself again Upstairs, slower on my feet Got to get to the corner and I know it's getting late At the cold polar ice End of the line If I don't wake up Send a message to mine Oh it's good So good baby Because it makes me forget, forget myself again Seventeen steps down to the river With my outfit, full set to deliver And the floodlights shine Blindin' my eye On the pay telephone, I send a message to mine Back down, early in the morning Same building, different story Well the room here's free and it's easy to find The tricks of her frame send a message to mine Yeah it's good