

Second Chance

Mark Medlock

Don't cry a tear just love makes the world go round oh can't you hear My heart makes a lonely sound I know its hard to be alone nobody picks up the phone but baby your too young to die give me your sweet sweet smile

Oh baby give your love a second chance please don't try be meant there might be a new romance love will coming back
you're as been as one don't be silly it's a arrogance love will make you, make you strong

Behind the sun there might be a place for you we can't go on oh see what a love can do I feel it's easy to survive give you dreams a live another time another place and I see your smiling face

Give me a second chance

Second Chance ooohh give me second chance ohh I said a second chance
