

Will My Dream Survive

Mark Medlock

You are like a rose in summer, you bring the sun again.
You are like the latest runner who's winning in the end.
So listen to my heartbeat and wait a little while. Yeah,
Cause every time you love me, my heart begins to smile.

Baby, will my dream survive, or are you telling sweet, sweet lies?

Baby, come and tell me now if you need me.

Baby, will my dream survive, or is this just a sweet goodbye?

Baby, come and let us try, oh, when you love me.

You are like a burning fire, your love will heal the pain.
You are giving me desire, when will I win again?
Tomorrow is a new day, there's joy inside my tears.
We better find a new way for losing all our fears.

Baby, will my dream survive, or are you telling sweet, sweet lies?

Baby, come and tell me now if you need me.

Baby, will my dream survive, or is this just a sweet goodbye?

Baby, come and let us try when you love me.

Oh baby, will my dream survive, baby, will this dream survive?
Or are you telling sweet, sweet lies?

Baby, come and tell me now, yeah, if you need me.

Oh Baby, yeah, will my dream survive, yeah,

Come on and tell me sweet, sweet lies when you love me.

Oh baby, don't you know, you know that my dream will survive
