Is it true, what they say did you really lose your way Up and down I see you stroll never looking out, to see which way to go Should I stop to ask you why Should I stop and take a wander round with me

[CHORUS]

To where you always wanted to go Where you've never been before a place where you can take off, your hat, and your coat I'll make a cup of tea
You can talk, to me
When you wanna leave I'll take you
When you wanna leave I'll take you
When you wanna leave I'll take you home.

Where do you go inside your head space and emptyness, becomes your flower bed In your veins a knowledged man kids are looking up, to find his master plan When I see your eyes I'll ask you why Would you like to rest your legs and fly
with me

[REPEAT CHORUS]

Silver hair, tired feet, walking the world every day short of words, full of love, could you help me, I'm on my way
