

Pipe Dreams

Mark Salling

There's a woman I've known for all of my life she's an anchor when all of your waves pass me by but there's a bottle I drink that makes me feel fine and I'm watching my life pass me by

So even if I don't see these pipe dreams come true I hope that you know that I was thinking of you and as much as I wish that I could do it alone I can't so that's why I'm coming home

There's a reason I stay though I know damn well that a city of angels can feel like a hell but there's a savior I seek somewhere in the sky and I'll join him or at least try

So even if I don't see
I hope that you know
and as much as I wish
I can't

So even if I don't see
I hope that you know
and as much as I wish
I can't
I can't
so that's why I'm coming home
