

I Hate Chicago

Mark Wills

Tuesday mornin' sports page
I've got coffee in my cup
A smile creeps across my face
The Braves had beat the Cubs
I hate Chicago

I'm changing planes in Dallas
I ain't going through O'Hare
It's a thousand dollars more I know
But I don't really care
I hate Chicago

Sara told me that she only
Needed space to think things out
Then she met some guy named Tony
Guess where they live now?

I hear the food is great
I hear the summer sure is nice
It's beautiful at Christmas
There's three more reasons why
I hate Chicago

From their WGN station
To their seven feet of snow
The rock band in the 80's
To the Oprah Winfrey Show
I hate Chicago

Sara told me that she only
Needed space to think things out
Then she met some guy named Tony
Guess where they live now, Chicago

Sara used to talk about
How one day we would settle down
Find ourselves an old farmhouse
On the outskirts of a small town

And then she told me that she only
Needed space to think things out
Then she met some guy named Tony
Guess where they live now?

That's right, I hate Chicago
I hate Chicago
Man, I hate Chicago

And I hate Chicago
