

Lost In A Kiss

Mark Wills

What am I doin' here?
Starin' at you through these empty eyes
And when did I disappear
And how did I lose this piece of time?

I remember your lips pressed against mine
All of the sudden I was lost

Lost in a kiss, I could feel my mind drift
Off the edge of forever
My heart slips away to a beautiful place
That I can't resist, oh, I was lost in a kiss

Whatever you've done to me
Is nothin' like I've felt before
Right now I can barely breathe
You're everything I'm livin' for

Did you just say something?
Baby I'm sorry, there for a moment I was lost

Lost in a kiss, I could feel my mind drift
Off the edge of forever
My heart slips away to a beautiful place
That I can't resist, oh, I was lost in a kiss

There's so many places yet to discover
Open your arms and let's get lost

Lost in a kiss, feel my mind drift
Off the edge of forever
My heart slips away to a beautiful place
That I can't resist, I wanna get lost in your kiss

I wanna get lost in your kiss
