

Right Here

Mark Wills

I love the way you feel right next to me
Your touch is way beyond my wildest dreams
You could be a million miles away
But the love I have for you will always stay

Right here in the center of my soul
All I'll ever long to hold, I'm holding now
Right here feel the passion in my kiss
All I'll ever long to give, I give to you
Right now, right here

My love for you goes way beyond the heart
You and I will never be apart
On this earth and through eternity
I want you to know, you'll always be

Right here in the center of my soul
All I'll ever long to hold, I'm holding now
Right here feel the passion in my kiss
All I'll ever long to give, I give to you
Right now, right here

I'll keep every dream, your every hope, your every fear
Every kiss, every smile, and even every tear

Right here in the center of my soul
All I'll ever long to hold, I'm holding now
Right here feel the passion in my kiss
All I'll ever long to give, I give to you
Right now, right here, right here
