

Anti Hero (Brave New World)

Marlon Roudette

I am the first to Recognize the virtue
In everything you are
In everything you try to be

You could risk it all
Fall in love with an outlaw
Can you play your part
In this tragedy?

Face it you need to know
Faith is running low
Ain't no good to you
I'm your anti hero
The chances that I've blown
The love I could have known
Can't do this to you

As we go
To this brave new world
Ain't no good to you
I'm your anti hero
As we go
To this brave new world
Can't do this to you

You were the first to Recognize and refer to
Everything I am
Not just who I'm trying to be
You see the time is a critical
And I can lead you on no more
If I play a role
Then we bound to fall

Face it you need to know
Faith is running low
Ain't no good to you
I'm your anti hero
The chances that I've blown
The love I could have known
Can't do this to you

As we go
To this brave new world
Ain't no good to you
I'm your anti hero
As we go
To this brave new world
Can't do this to you

I won't blame you
If you decide to run
After all I've done
There's no shame
If you've had enough
You decide if I'm the one

You decide if I'm the one

As we go
Ain't no good to you
I'm your anti hero
As we go
Can't do this to you

You decide if I'm the one
