

You are invincible shining like a heart of gold your timing is incredible it's just.

Show mercy to the pitiful show mercy for a miracle tell the poor that there is enough.
And tell the rich that there isn't much.

I'm fighting I'm fighting on my own.
I'm fighting I'm fighting on my own.
I'm fighting I'm fighting on my own.
On my own.

Lost in life feeling free
why we cry unity
Holding on what has gone
When we blame ones at home Hand in hand you will see you can stand truthfully Pushing on is so good Fight your wars don't leave blood justice flows in your vein's Cut your shame from the vane now you know in your heart life's too short to fall apart

Still fighting still fighting still fighting on my own
Still fighting still fighting on my own, on my own Still fighting on my own
Still fighting still fighting on my own, on my own
