

Well take a look at her now
Tossed out! she got what she was after

(hello big sky)
(nothing can stop it)

Well what if you had a moment of love
With the sounds of the future
Can you imagine it up?
All I could do was just watch you walk away

Tell me your name!
This is no accident!
To be or not
To want something good
I'm like a raging animation
I wonder what it's like to be one
I'm hoping it's true
I'm hoping for you

These chances hold you back
It's the search that I crave
I always hear that song at the right time
"there's a party in his mind and he hopes it never stops"
