

The Hunter

Marnie

A heart explodes every second on the street
The weight of the world and its heaven
They'll always be together
The line it's drawn and a circle is born
Stop and stare at your heart, at your heart
Open for all to see
A lifetime history

Oh help me please
Why look away
Oh can we stay
Together
Together

Cuz I am the hunter now
And I won't hear your cries
So dry your eyes friend
We'll make a wish then say goodbye

A heart explodes every second on the street
A sister, a daughter, a lover
Who hopes they're not forgotten
You crossed the line and committed a crime
It was there from the start, from the start
Oceans of empathy
And now this is history

Oh help me please
Why look away
Oh can we stay
Together
Together

Cuz I am the hunter now
And I won't hear your cries
So dry your eyes friend
We'll make a wish then say goodbye.
