Back at Your Door

From the moment the lights went off Everything had changed Lie awake in an empty room In my head it all feels the same

Like the taste of the day you left That still lingers on my breath And the dampness of tears that left A stain where you had wept

All alone with the negligee That still hangs off of my bed I keep meaning to give it away But I just leave it there instead

No need to cry about it I cannot live without it Every time I wind up back at your door

Why do you do this to me? You penetrate right through me Every time I wind up back at your door

3 more days til I see your face I'm afraid it's far too much Cook a meal and fix up the place Dial your number, hang it up

If I took you for granted I apologize for acting tough You're my reason for living And there's no way I'm giving up, oh

Don't need to cry about it I cannot live without it Every time I wind up back at your door

Why do you do this to me? You penetrate right through me Every time I wind up back at your door

Now every evening is a bitter fight And I'm eating home alone on a Friday night I know what your friends say "You're just wasting your love and time" I will never let you change your mind

No need to cry about it I cannot live without it Every time I wind up back at your door

Why do you do this to me? You penetrate right through me Every time I wind up back at your door

No need to cry about it I may just die without it Maroon 5

Every time I wind up back at your door

Why do you do this to me? You penetrate right through me Every time I wind up back at your door

Every time I wind up back at your door Every time I wind up back at your door
