

Out Of Goodbyes

Maroon 5

Tell me "action", speak louder
But there's somethin about her words
That hurt

Closing up, it's so late and
I'm the last one still waitin for you to lock the door

On our way home I realize
There's some kind of storm brewing in his eyes
[Lady Antebellum and Adam Levine:]
Only veiled by a thin disguise

Now that I've done my time
I need to move on and I need you to try
[Lady Antebellum and Adam Levine:]
Cause we're out of goodbyes
We're out of goodbyes
Out of goodbyes

Never asked you to change
But sadly you don't feel the same
About me
I wonder does your man still shudder
When you touch his hand
Like this man

On our way home I realize
There's some kind of storm brewing in his eyes
Only veiled by a thin disguise

Now that I've done my time
I need to move on and I need you to try
Cause we're out of goodbyes
We're out of goodbyes, we're out of goodbyes...
