

Indulgence Ends

Maroon

I can feel the pain of the innocent caught up in mass- enslavement.

Their cries of desperation Through their life of absolute darkness.

Victims of a species running into self destruction.

Because of ignorance, greed and lack of education.

The blood inside my veins is getting colder everyday.

Anger is building up inside!

I don't want to slip away into senseless hate.

But something must be done!

MY PATIENCE IS RUNNING OUT!

THIS IS A WAR!
