Wake Up In Hell

Born - but never raised You're not a human you're just a product Fearful eyes - see nothing but death Mutated ears hear nothing but cries No beautiful home - safe and warm Live in a cage full of dirt and pain Hateful faces - so very unknown Speaking in tongues you can't understand

WAKE UP IN HELL HELL WAKE UP IN HELL HELL WAKE UP IN HELL WAKE UP IN HELL WAKE UP! Slaughter! - Hacked to pieces

See those of your kind getting mutilated This must be hell - this can't be real This fucking fear paralyses my thoughts There is no space - you can not move You're meat stock now, reversed tragedy This isn't hell - it's fucking real Hell would be relief, no remorse in abattoirs "Oh where am I? What's that I'm going through? Where is my family? Will I see the light again? This can't be real. I am human not an animal You can't tread me like this! Is there no compassion?"

"Save me from my destiny. I can't stand this anymore! I am human not an animal! I am human Human!
