

Love's a Game

Marques Houston

Ohhhh.....ohh ohh

Man

I can't believe I was such a fool

To let you get away from me

Hey....

Damn

You whispered in my ear

As soft as a summer breeze

Baby don't leave me

And I was a fool

Who didn't have the strength to walk away from you

So I chose to lose

And love's a game

I played and lost

Shoulda learned my lesson yesterday

When yesterday was far away

And love's a game

I paid the cost

Shoulda learned my lesson yesterday

When yesterday was so so far away

The day turns into night

And yet and still fight to carry on

Without you

What's a man to do?

So I cried cried cr-ied

Myself to sleep every night

Where are you?

Are you coming back?

Said I'm bout to have a heart attack baby

And love's a game

I played and lost

Shoulda learned my lesson yesterday

When yesterday was far away, far away, far away

And love's a game

I paid the cost

Shoulda learned my lesson yesterday

When yesterday was so so far away.....

far away.....

far away.....

far away.....

far away

Yesterday was far way

Yesterday was far way

Yesterday was far way
