

OMG I Miss You

Marsha Ambrosius

Oh my God I miss you baby
Between these sheets this love we made
I still taste your lips each breathe I take
Oh I can't fill this empty space
OMG it's real, it's you and I
Without you I would rather die
I am not myself, it's hell on earth
Drowning in this well of love on fire

Wooo

I know that I'm better off alone and lonely
I broke your heart and disappeared out of Fear of being yours all day
I know that I'm selfish, I know that I'm selfish
All alone, and lonely
But this house is not a home without you here
To hold me

My God I miss you baby
Between these sheets, this we love make
I still taste your lips each breathe I take
Oh I can feel this empty space

Oh my God I miss you baby
I'm missing you baby
Oh my God I'm missing you baby
So come back to me, to me, to me

Oh my God I miss our song
That counting hours, it's been too long
Please don't tell me that this love is gone
Oh please just let me right my wrongs
Oh come back to me
Come back to me, to me
Come back to me
I miss you baby

Wooo

I miss you baby
Oh my God
I miss you baby
