

Sky

Marsha Ambrosius

Spread your wings and fly
Above the moon and the stars
Gathered seas so far,
Oh, where you are, I long to see your face
Can't believe you went away
Gone too soon I say
But one day, I'll see you in the sky
Just you and I, just one last time
One last goodbye
Tears fall till they run dry
Trace 'em there, you will find
All the reasons why, I cry, cry, cry
I cry, cry
See you in the sky
See you in the sky, oh, oh
See you in the sky
