

The Break Up Song

Marsha Ambrosius

Oh it's over, over
Nothing left to do you know that it's over, over

I need space, let me decide, where to go from here
Before I lose my mind, we both know it's for the best
So than I'm counting on the sun it's going to shine
Til than the darkest clouds stay over me and I'm torn apart
That your so over me, I'm so over you not even knowing me at all
I should've never made this call

To say to you, you know that it's over
So over, nothing left to do you know that it's over, oh no

I've left before & you the same,
It's time it feels as if the end is here again
I know the truth,
So let me cry to catch the blame for what's become of you and I
So here's my heart so broken
'Cause of you and I don't know why I'm so in love with you
And it's tearing me apart that I would never know at all,
If I'd of never made this call

She began to tell,
Me all the things you don't
Like how y'all still together and leaving you she won't
How am I suppose to deal
When pain is all I feel this is all to real
I'll get out your way, boy I don't wanna stay
I thought I could be strong
But this situation makes me hate the fact that we can't get along
I'm suppose to be the one for you and your my number one
Until your my forever, were done

You know that it's over, over
Nothing left to do you know that it's over, over
I'm outta here, I'm outta here, it's over, over
Nothing left to do you know that it's over, over
