

It's Not The End Of The World If I Lose Him

Marti Webb

It's not the end of the world if I lose him
It just might seem so tonight
It's not the end of the world
Nothing like it
I'll soon be the same old me

People get over worse things
And I'll get over this
In no time at all you can bet I'll be laughing
Well I wouldn't give him the pleasure of seeing me cry
Why should I?

It's not the end of the world to feel lonely
I suppose this feeling goes
It's not the end of the world to change rainbows
I'll be fine when I find mine
It's not the end of the world to be free
It's not the end of the world to be me
