

Martika's Kitchen

Martika

Here we go, the table's set, baby
My oven is hot
Come on get some in Martika's kitchen, baby
You bring the noise and I'll bring the smile
It's been so long since you've been down in the kitchen, baby
My desire's running longer than a country mile
So true, you can make all my wishes
So real, you can make all my dreams
If you're good, baby, I'll even let you break the dishes
Come on get some, get some, get some
In Martika's kitchen, baby, we're talking about the kitchen
Don't you just love spring time in the city?
Boom box kick, kick, kicking out the latest jams
J boys dancing, all the girls looking so pretty
Love is in the air, inhibition be damned
So true, you can make all my wishes
So real, you can make all my dreams
If you're good, baby, I'll even let you break the dishes
Come on get some, get some, get some
In Martika's kitchen, baby
The table is set, the oven is hot
Baby, when we get started, we won't ever ever stop
Come on, get some, you can make all my wishes
Come on, baby, let me hear you say you're with it
Come on, sweetie, if you're good I'll let you get it
I don't care I've got the chair, if you think your butt'll fit it
You turn me all the way up, I admit it
Come on get some in Martika's kitchen, baby
You bring the noise and I'll bring the smile
It's been so long since you've been down to the kitchen, baby
My desire's running longer than a country mile so T R U E, true
The table is set, the oven is hot
Baby, when we get started, we won't ever stop
Come on get some in Martika's kitchen, baby
You bring the noise and I'll bring the smile
So true, you can make all my wishes
So real, you can make all my dreams
And if you're good, baby, I'll even let you break the dishes
Come on get some, get some, get some
In Martika's kitchen, baby
You can make all my wishes, the kitchen, baby
You can make all my dreams, talking about the kitchen, baby
I'll even let you break the dishes, Martika's kitchen, baby
In Martika's kitchen, get some, get some, get some
In Martika's kitchen, baby, in Martika's kitchen
