

Karla

Martin Chodúr

Her name is Karla, She's a fantastic girl
Have you met her? Seen her? She understands
Me as no one ever ever has done and I think she likes me

Her eyes are so big as two pools of water
And now they look at me quite often
This Karla, buddy, she really knows What she gotta do.

I do believe she really cares bout me
Say what would you do if you were me say
I don't really need her I don't know how
How am I gonna tell her, I don't know.

She's an inspiration that I have always needed
She's older, I know but also prettier then other
Women I have met in my life It's true
It's strange... But these things happen
I can see her as a lady but she likes Eric Clapton
And I think He's quite boring well never mind
I might start to like him too.

I do believe she really cares bout me
Say what would you do if you were me say
I don't really need her I don't know how
How am I gonna tell her, I don't know.
