

Sleeping With An Angel

Martin Chodúr

You're an angel from the sky
Though you're almost all the time
Lying in my bed never wanting to
Get up and do your job
Never willing to stand up
And save from hell somebody like you.

And you don't see it coming
It's getting near every day
And you don't want to see it
It's almost here.

I'm not particularly
Someone who's born for a sanctuary
I have sinned so many times before
But I am not at all in danger
Cause I'm sleeping with an angel
And to hell that's where I'll never go.

And you don't see it coming
It's getting near every day
And you don't want to see it
It's almost here.

I have sinned so many times befoooooooooore
But I am not at all in danger
Cause I'm sleeping with an angel
And to hell that's where I'll never go.

And you don't see it coming
It's getting near every day
And you don't want to see it
It's almost here.
