

Something About You

Martin Solveig

I feel fine as I walk down the street, really far from what I have to do

Keep on thinking as I follow my feet, not sure where I'm going to.

It's true I had to leave you alone, I was young at that time.

I can't move anymore on my own, I believe in something new

I have no interest but

You, I know there's something about you, I know there's something about

You, I know there's something about you, yeah yeah.

Wasn't sure it would happen to me, gradually you took my doubt away.

I was down, I was blind but now I can see 'cause you are my light baby.

So true to feel that you're on my side, I realize what it means to me.

Take it easy, just let yourself slide to a place that now I see
A promised land for me and

You, I know there's something about you, I know there's something about

You, I know there's something about you, yeah hey.

You, I know there's something about you, I know there's something about

You, I know there's something about you, hey hey.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

Day after day you find a way, you take me higher.

You, I know there's something about you, I know there's something about

You, I really want to get

Something special girl, so special to me, so special girl, so special to me

I really need you baby, really want you girl, really want you girl.

You, I know there's something about you, I know there's something about
