

Lies

Martina McBride

Lemons are sweet as honey
Usually life is fair
Purple's a shade of money and Jesus doesn't care

Hummingbirds don't fly backwards
Lovers don't say goodbye
Saturn has 7 rings
And I have never told a lie

I don't walk these halls
And I don't climb these walls every night
And I don't cry
And even though I'm waiting by the phone
I don't want you to call
I don't miss you at all
Lies

I'm finally moving forward
Getting on with my life
I never dream of you and me
It's strange I don't know why

I'm really not that lonely
You never cross my mind
And when I hear your name
It doesn't cut me like a knife

I don't walk these halls
And I don't climb these walls every night
And I don't cry
And even though I'm waiting by the phone
I don't want you to call
I don't miss you at all
Lies

This is how I keep my sanity
This is what I need you to believe

I don't walk these halls
And I don't climb these walls every night
And I don't cry
And even though I'm waiting by the phone
I don't want you to call
I don't miss you at all
Lies
All lies
