There You Are

Martina McBride

There you are in the early light of day There you are in the quiet words I pray I've been blessed by the simple happiness Of the perfect love we've made

Every time I turn around When I'm lost and when I'm found Like an angel standing guard There you are Every time I take a breath And when I forget to breathe You're watching over me There you are When I'm looking for the light In the middle of the night Searching for the brightest star There you are

There you are in standing in a crowded room There you are the earth and I'm the moon My desire is to stand by the fire That burns inside of you

Every time I turn around When I'm lost and when I'm found Like an angel standing guard There you are Every time I take a breath And when I forget to breathe You're watching over me There you are When I'm looking for the light In the middle of the night Searching for the brightest star There you are

When I'm looking for the light In the middle of the night Searching for the brightest star There you are There you are There you are
