

I Can't Say Goodbye

Marty Robbins

'Cause I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye
I just stopped by to say hello again
Just to see you and ask how things have been I shouldn't stay long there's someone waiting just outside just outside

But I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye
I can't say goodbye like I did before
I can't go on and leave you standing in the door
I look around me at the world that once was mine

I was foolish to leave it all behind
I can't go now no matter how I try and I try
But I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye
I'm with you again and I can't say goodbye
