I Feel Another Heartbreak Coming On

Marty Robbins

I was doin' fine till you showed up this mornin' And I got that feelin' that I thought was gone You were just too much to take without a warnin' Oh, I feel another heartbreak comin' on

I had taught myself to get along without you It took weeks to make things right, that you made wrong And, just like that, you shattered all I worked for Oh, I feel another heartbreak comin' on

Didn't have enough time to get over Just from dawn till dark and dark till dawn I was doin' fine till you showed up this mornin' Oh, I feel another heartbreak comin' on

Didn't have enough time to get over
Just from dawn till dark and dark till dawn
I was doin' fine till you showed up this mornin'
Oh, I feel another heartbreak comin' on
