

No Tears, No Regrets

Marty Robbins

No tears no regrets it's just goodbye my love
Our affair is all over I'm to blame my love
I gave my heart and soul and everything is through
But if you didn't care then why should I blame you.

Your kiss only brought me misery and pain
But I swear I will never fall in love again
You made a vow but could not keep it
And that's the reason why
There'll be no tears, no regrets, just goodbye.

Your kiss only brought me misery and pain
But I swear I will never fall in love again
You made a vow but could not keep it
There'll be no tears, no regrets, just goodbye...
