Ride, Cowboy Ride

Marty Robbins

Ride, cowboy, ride Don't ride too slow Tucson's a mighty long way yet to go

He started his long ride in Prescott The sun was a hundred or more On down he rode at full gallop Into the flat desert floor

Driving the big herd to Flagstaff In Prescott the letter was there Happiness soon would be sorrow Sad news the letter did bear

Ride, cowboy, ride Don't go too slow Ride, cowboy, ride You've a long way to go

Your darlin' now lies on her deathbed Racked by fever and pain Reaching for you at her bedside At each breath she's callin' your name

Forward he leaned in the saddle Pushing through mesquite and sage His head never raised for a greeting As he passed the Wickenburg stage

Ride, cowboy, ride Don't ride too slow Tucson's a mighty long way to go

In Phoenix he traded horses Now on the back of this roan He could see visions of Tucson His darlin' and their lovely home

Ride, cowboy, ride Don't ride too slow There's still a hundred and twenty to go

In through the ranch gate he galloped And without breaking his stride He bounded out of the saddle And rushed to his sweet darlin's side

Then as the dyin' girl saw him A smile came over her face Holding her hand as it tightened Barely had he won the race

Ride, cowboy, ride On through the blue Ride, cowboy, ride She'll be waiting for you Ride, cowboy, ride On through the blue Ride, cowboy, ride She'll be waiting for you
