The Sea and Me

Marty Robbins

The sea and me kees lonely company The tides have come and gone just like your love for me The tradewinds say that you'll come back someday I think there's solitude they held take you away

Gone are the moments on dark sandy beaches Where we get our secret randezvous The brakers play on coral sands that say We'll bring her home again the wind the sea and me

Gone are the moments...