Utah Carol

Marty Robbins

And now my friends you've asked me what makes me sad and still And why my brow is darkened like the clouds upon the hill Run in your ponies closer and I'll tell to you my tale Of Utah Carol my partner and his last ride on the trail

We rode the range together and rode it side by side I loved him like a brother, and I wept when Utah died We were rounding up one morning when work was almost done When on his side the cattle started on a frightened run

Underneath the saddle that the boss's daughter rode Utah that very morning had placed a bright red robe So the saddle might ride easy for Lenore his little friend And it was this red blanket that brought him to his end

The blanket was now dragging behind her on the ground The frightened cattle saw it and charged it with a bound Lenore then saw her danger and turned her pony's face And leaning in the saddle tied the blanket to its place

But in leaning lost her balance, fell in front of that wild tid e "Lay still Lenore I'm coming" were the words that Utah cried His faithful pony saw her and reached her in a bound I thought he'd been successful, and raised her from the ground

But the weight upon the saddle had not been felt before His backcinch snapped like thunder and he fell by Lenore Picking up the blanket he swung it over his head And started cross the prairie, "Lay still Lenore" he said

When he got the stampede turned and saved Lenore his friend He turned to face the cattle and meet his fatal end His six gun flashed like lightning, the report rang loud and cl ear As the cattle rushed and killed him he dropped the leading stee r

On his funeral morning I heard the preacher say I hope we'll all meet Utah at the roundup far away Then they wrapped him in a blanket that saved his little friend And it was this red blanket that brought him to his end
