You Gotta Climb

Marty Robbins

You gotta climb to scale the mountain
You gotta climb to reach the top
You gotta climb to see the splendor
You gotta climb climb climb don't you stop

Well the path is steep it leads upward the way is rough narrow too
But every step brings you higher until that mountain people com e in view

You gotta climb to scale the mountain...

Don't you give up cause you're weary you can't expect an easy w ay Downward path leads to nowhere you gotta climb climb climb ever yday

You gotta climb to scale the mountain...

When you're right on top of your mountain you'll be glad that's struggled on A few of all you got around you the struggle of the climb all g one

You gotta climb to scale the mountain...
