

Well I started this story in the middle of the page
I remembered the lines and forgot my age
When somebody said my attitude was snotty

That's when you called and said, "Get out tonight"
I'll catch a late night movie on a light night flight
I'll be gettin' real drunk and making fun of everybody

Ain't nobody gonna get me down
Something must have gone around, hey

You can stick that sign up your ass, the one that says it won't
last
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife, I'll have the time of my life
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday now

Oh well I went to a party last Saturday night
You know I think I got laid, then got in a fight
I don't remember that much but I think I liked it

I saw some band called Roses and Socke
And they brought back the rock and the singer was cocky
Two years later I'm sure they forget about it

Ain't nobody gonna get me down
Something must have gone around, yeah

You can stick that sign up your ass, the one that says it won't
last
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife, I'll have the time of my life
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Yeah yeah yeah

Come on
You can stick that sign up your ass, the one that says it won't
last
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher everyday
Your sarcasm cuts like a knife, I'll have the time of my life
My sugar buzz is growing higher and higher
