What Good Am I Without You

Marvin Gaye

Wo oh wo oh, wo oh wo oh

What good would a rose be if the raindrops didn't fall? What good is a telephone if there's no one to call? What good is a wedding if no one says "I do"? Tell me, baby what good am I without you?

Wo oh wo oh, wo oh wo oh

What good is a flier if he don't have a plane? What good is a doctor if he can't cure the pain? Tell me, what good is a sweetheart who proves to be untrue? What good, baby, am I without you?

I'm no good without you, and there's one thing I know I just got to have you, darling, 'cause I love you so What good is living without the one you love? And what good is the heavens without the stars above? What good is a true heart that proves to be broken in two? What good, baby, am I without you?
