Going Gone

Mary Black

There is a lighthouse in the harbor Giving guidance with its light But I had no one to return to As I wander through life

From the first time that I saw you Standing silent by the shore I knew my search was over And I would look for love no more

Deep in the waters of love I am falling, sinking like a stone Deep in my heart I can hear love calling Going once, going twice, going gone Going once, going twice, going gone

There is a ship on the horizon
Making its way against the wind
And from the place where I stand watching
I swear my ship is coming in

Deep in the waters of love I am falling, sinking like a stone Deep in my heart I can hear love calling Going once, going twice, going gone Going once, going twice, going gone

Deep in the waters of love I am falling, sinking like a stone Deep in my heart I can hear love calling Going once, going twice, going gone Going once, going twice, going gone
