

Past The Point Of Rescue

Mary Black

Last night I dreamed you were back again
Larger than life again, holding me tight again
Placing those same kisses on my brow
Sweeter than ever now, Lord I remember how

Couldn't get enough of kissing, do you know how much I'm missing
No you don't, but I do

CHORUS

But I do, and I wonder if I'm past the point of rescue
Is no word from you at all the best that you can do
I never meant to push or shove you
Do you know how much I love you
No you don't but I do

Days like a slow train trickle by
Even the words that I write refuse to fly
All that I can hear is your song haunting me
Can't get the memory out of my head, you see
Distractions I've been using

Do you know how much you're losing
No you don't, but I do
