

Slip Of The Tongue

Mary Gauthier

Honey sit down I've got something to say
Last night I drowned I got carried away
Swept up in the feelings the words poured out of me
This morning I'm so scared I don't know how to be

My heart moves
With the morning sun
It's not ready to set for anyone
When I said, "I love you"
It was a slip of the tongue

I didn't lie but it wasn't the truth
I know it's not right but what can I do
My memories haunt me they never let me go
There's someone on my mind and I think you should know

My heart moves
With the morning sun
It's not ready to set for anyone
When I said, "I love you"
It was a slip of the tongue

Love is more than a feeling
It's a way of living everyday
It's the hardest thing I ever gave away
