

Gonna Breakthrough

Mary J. Blige

If you've been stressin you've been hurtin it's gonna be alright
I know times get so hard that you can cry but not tonight
I know just what you came for get up up on the dance floor
Or where ever you are while the DJ's breakin it down

Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good

All I wanna do is get in touch with you
To be real how you feel Everybody goes through things sometimes
So let your mind just be free Anything you wanna be, be
But whatever you do let this music get to you (get to you)

Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good

We gonna tear it up (we gonna tear it up)
All night listen till the morning light
Something that's gonna sooth your mind
Its gonna sooth your mind and make you feel so good Baby let your body free (body be anything you wanna be) Just let go and you will see

Check it out
Its time to break through MJ gonna take you there
Get your hands in the air and get you a three step Lil' somethin for the clubs and it feels so hood

Get your back off the wall cause united we stand together

Get your ass on the floor lets go

Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good
Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good

Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good

Ain't no telling what we're gonna do
But I'm gonna breakthrough and take you
and take you where it feels so good
