

Love a Woman

Mary J. Blige

So you think you know how to love a woman?
Well, I think it's still some things you need to know
So you think you know how to love a woman?
Well I feel it's still some things you need to know
Things you need to know

A woman
She needs more than material things
And a woman
Needs so much more than what a man can say

A woman
Needs you to make love to her, she needs more than sex
Oh, a real woman needs a real man
They don't talk about it, be about it
Put that work, and still shows his woman real romance

So you think you know how to love a woman?
Well, I think it's still some things you need to know
So you think you know how to love a woman?
Well I feel it's still some things you need to know
Things you need to know

A woman
She likes to talk, and work it out
And a woman
Likes for you to watch her back, protect her crown

A woman
Don't only want your make-up sex
She wants your respect
Oh, and a real woman never wanna walk into a room, see another woman knowing information, she don't even know about her man

So you think you know how to love a woman?
Well, I think it's still some things you need to know
So you think you know how to love a woman?
But I feel there's still some things you need to know
Things you need to know

Make your way home
At a decent hour, every night
Pick up your phone
Just to say you're still in love from time to time
Remind her, that she's still beautiful in your eyes
And ride with your woman,
Make her feel that you're always on her side
When she cries,
Ask her what she's feeling
Let her know you sympathize
Do you fight?
Gotta swallow your pride
Got some making up to do, gotta make it right
Kiss her real slow then get down and blow her mind
Gotta take your time
I said, kiss her real slow and get down and blow her mind
Say it one more time, say it one more time

Kiss her real slow and get down and blow her mind
Gotta take your time
Want no one minute man
We wanna I don't stop till she finish man
If that's asking too much
You never know how to really love a woman...

So you think you know how to love a woman?
Well I feel it's still some things you need to know
So you think you know how to love a woman?
Well, I feel it's still some things you need to know
Things you need to know

You think you know how to love a woman?
