

See That Boy Again

Mary J. Blige

I remember standing and grooving
Nodding my head just moving
My girlfriend dragged me to this place
Staring in the crowd like we do
I saw this guy through the people
And that's when I saw you face
But you came over to me
As sweet can be
And left my left hand
Started stepping
What else did I need to know
I said yes if you wanted to go
Cause you are heaven
But you left me here

So I gotta see that boy again
Cause I wanna feel that joy again
I remember leaning on his shoulder
Something cooler
What are you ordering
That's why I, I am on this floor again
I wanna see that boy again

Listen to me

My girlfriend say introduce her
But I ain't gonna lie, wanna lose her
There's some nice you want to pay
Ooh you have a way with females
I didn't get your number or email
What in hell was in my brain
Had I known that you're a thief
But I couldn't let you see that I was dressing
I lost my band
Then you grabbed your Mercedes keys
But you pulled before you leave
And I just stood there
Like I didn't have to guess

So I gotta see that boy again
Cause I wanna feel that joy again
I remember leaning on his shoulder
Something cooler
What are you ordering
That's why I, I am on this floor again
I wanna see that boy again

Listen to me

It's like the part in the movie
That get away
Oh no, not the person you want
The person you want is losing
So you pray
But the circumstances, changes courses
We're just entirely up to the boss
But 'member

Just because it's written don't mean you can't play
Your hand to change your fate

So I gotta see that boy again
Cause I wanna feel that joy again
I remember leaning on his shoulder
Something cooler
What are you ordering
That's why I, I'm on this floor again
Where did you go
Where did you go
I'm on this floor
I don't wanna leave without you baby
Where is my baby
