

If You Want Me

Mase

Yeah, can you here me?
Well, uh, this goes out to you.
Do you know who you are?
Do you know? C'mon.

I just wanna let you know,
Can't hold back just let it flow,
If you want me.
And I just wanna make you see,
Here is where you want to be,
If you want me.

Where do all of your emotions go,
'Cause I don't feel your arms holding me.
And when it gets cold at night and my body is warm,
Don't you know that I'm all that you need.

Cause I just wanna be with you,
Whenever you want me to,
And anything that you ask I would do.
And baby I hope you understand,
That I've got feelings,
But all of my feelings are just being used.

I feel emotions as they fall in the wind,
I am more than your saviour I'm desire within.
I feel emotions as they fall in the wind,
I am more than your heart's best friend.

I'm falling in love again,
You're being my friend again,
We're making sweet love, we're making sweet love, babe.
It's sweeter than morning dew,
You know I'm so into you.
There's no other touch, and it hurts me so much.

What you think, what Ma$e be young Ma$e be dumb?
Get Ma$e strung it'll be no premium.
Ever since Big died, my life changed,
Out the blue I'm your boo,
Yo, that's quite strange.
I get nice things, way out they price range,
And half these girls don't even know my right name.
See a fly Role made me the coyote,
Love a ghetto chick 'cause I know she'd die for me.
You got me confused see, Cam the freak,
Ma$e never the playa bring sand to the beach.
I'm something that the average girl's hand couldn't reach,
Living expenses, twenty grand a week.
You know me, I be O.T., low key, platinum Role's, smokin' a oz.
I'm a baby-faced playa without no gold teeth,
About two-point-eight and about to go three.
