

Hello Beautiful

Masked Intruder

Hello Beautiful.
Won't you tell me where you have been all my life?
Where you hid yourself away these lonely nights
I've wasted without you.
Hello Beautiful.
I can tell just by the look that's in your eyes
That you don't consider this a nice surprise
Finding me here in your house.
It may be true that I came here to rob you.
Please believe that's something I would not do
Now that you blew me away.
I'm gonna spend every day
Looking forward to when I can finally say that I got you.
Hello Beautiful.
Won't you tell me where you have been all my life?...
