

Ain't Gonna Die

Mason Jennings

Pardon me my dear you've gone straight to my head
It's now been two months that i expected to be dead
And i can swear on this but I can't be sure
I think the hands of fate just got a manicure
'cause everything about you darling seems to indicate
There's gonna be a little wait for the pearly gates
I ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year
I ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year
I said, i ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year
And after that it's still unclear
But i ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year
No more medicine, no more wine
No more cigarettes, this party only serves time
And honey, you're my religion
Even though you haven't yet expanded
To include a heaven after
Even though I have demanded it
I just want to tell you darling
How i feel about you
The best way I know how to
So i ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year
I said, i ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year
I said, i ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year
After that it's still unclear
But i ain't gonna die, i ain't gonna die this year

That's what i said
