

Milan

Massari

Took a night flight
From the city
Saw the daylight
In Milano
24 hours to breathe it in
To go up there
Into the cafe
That's when I saw her face
You know she took my breath away
Alright
Then she smiled at me
I couldn't move
Felt like I knew her forever
Went up to talk to her
Get to know her
Before one word
She stopped me
And said let's leave this place
You know she took me heart away
Alright

She never even spoke her name
She was like an angel dancing in the rain
She said these last words as she touched my hand
Just remember me, remember me, as we land

As the sunset, turned to moonlight
On the rooftop over Milano
I lived a lifetime with a stranger
Now wishing, that I could find her
If only I could turn back time
Never would have said goodbye
Alright

She never even spoke her name
She was like an angel dancing in the rain
She said these last words as she touched my hand
Just remember me, remember me, as we land
As we land
As we land

She never even spoke her name
She was like an angel dancing in the rain
She said these last words as she touched my hand
Just remember me, remember me, as we land
As we land
As we land
