

Back Against the Wall

Master P

Tryin to make it..
It's been a long road
Sic-Wid-It Records

UNNNNNNNNNNGGGGGHHHHH! (C'mon, ooh)
Y'all feel that? (I feel it playboy, I smell you)
It's real out here 40 (It's real Pee!)

I'm out here in the slums where thugs be usin, ghetto tactics like, choppin up candy canes sittin on top of a dried up JCPenney day mattress
Whatever it takes to survive, see that's what I supply Like slippin and slidin in the grocery store and settlin out of court
Soft white coke a black turn into hard solidses
Thirty-eight snub nosed pistol grip lay nijjas on they wah-wah
The saga continues, the struggle's just beginnin
And it's hard to look up to snotty folks, cause THEY be sinnin
'Pac gone, Biggie gone, Seagram gone -- and we also lost Eazy-E one of the first gangster rappers of all time to the most vicious and deadliest disease in history since cancer
To Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome, tombstone
From the graveyard shift, RBL's Mister C
One love, to Rappin Ron and Plann B
Victims of the trigger (unnnnggggggghhhhhh)
Po' out a little liquor

It's not the same, this world is crazy
We out here goin through it all
Everything must change, it's gettin shady Got our backs against the wall

UNGGGGGGGGHHHHHHH, I shed tears for pain 40, some for anger
Seen bloodshed by crooked cops, and gangbangers Feel my pain (unnnnggghhh) only time'll change it and fast money, cars, and bitches got me trapped in this game
And my lil' homies ballin, picture me fallin and momma in the funeral screamin and crawlin
Is there a heaven or hell?
To ghetto kids in the anky only time will tell
And jealousy, and envy, come with money
While crooked, politicians, run the country
And it's a, damn shame to see my, weeples vanish
Now they teach us ebonics, what about english and spanish
I couldn't, live my life behind bars and gates While the government play a game called process to eliminate

Case #246, shootin in an inhabited area
They was steady complainin about the dope sellin
But they ain't never been evicted, or convicted
They ain't never been subpeonaed to court, or arrested
Shackled like an animal for pushin rocks
Dang near choked to death by motorcycle cops
Pepper sprayed and laughed at like that shit was funny
Pregnant breezy threw down on her tummy
Do you ever think I'll ever be able to get a chance to repent and ask the lord for forgiveness before he close the casket, will my son end up growin up without a father will he end up bein a bastard?

A bastard -- that's a good question (unggggggggghhh!)
I don't know, I don't know

[Chorus]
