

A Replica of Invention

Master

Soon the machine will produce them
Stimulate and will induce them
The choice of face will be chosen
The mind the program be loaded
The body will be exclusive
Thoughts and ideas included
A replica of invention
Cloned with the latest obsessions

As the state assumes control of they create their almost perfect machines.

There is no doubt that the scientists continuing with experiments and using human beings to create their perfect machines.

The machines will soon be able to withstand all the modern abuse and the warfare will continue in our lives and beyond for a better excuse
